This is the definitive guide to experiencing the grandeur and majesty of New Zealand. Thomas's excellent research breaks the country down into nineteen distinct geographical regions, from the beautiful mountains to the breathtaking sandy shores of the Pacific Ocean. This guide offers the best choices in private homes, farms, and guesthouse accommodations found throughout New Zealand. As a detailed directory, it lists over 400 private residences and inns. Each listing, written by the host, offers insight into the culture and history of the area. This personal touch provides guests with a feel for the accommodations. Also included are contact numbers, various accommodations available, prices, and directions. James Thomas includes a map of each region. The homes are listed as they occur on a southward journey, making it easier to locate unfamiliar places and find specific areas in a region. The inns and residences featured offer a diverse range of accommodations, from cosy to luxurious, but what they all have in common is superior hospitality.
